The screenshot shows the JCM Global Match website. At the top is a navigation bar with a search bar and various menu items like 'Home', 'What is JCM', 'How to Use', 'Good Practice', 'Open Discussion', 'Invitation Salon', 'Specialty', 'MDBs', 'FAQ', and 'Inquiry'. Below the navigation bar is a large banner with the text 'JCM Global Match' and 'A FREE matching platform for decarbonizing businesses!'. Underneath the banner, there is a paragraph explaining the platform's purpose: 'This business matching platform is dedicated to support formation of any kind of JCM projects to accelerate diffusion of advanced decarbonizing technologies. You can SEARCH for COMMUNICATE with other users and ADVERTISE your business freely in this site.' Below this is a section titled '*Major features of the “JCM Global Match”' which lists three main activities: 1. FIND (Potential partner), 2. ADVERTISE (Your company to other users), and 3. DISCUSS (your business plan). To the right of this section is a diagram titled 'Consortium for JCM' showing a handshake between a 'Japanese Enterprise' (represented by a Japanese flag and a building icon) and a 'Partner Country Enterprise' (represented by a globe and a building icon). Below the handshake are icons for 'Consultants, Public sectors' and 'Financers'. At the bottom of the screenshot are two aerial photographs of industrial facilities, likely power plants or manufacturing sites.

A screenshot of the JCM website interface. The top navigation bar is blue with white text links: Home, What is JCM, How to Use, Good Practices, Open Discussion, Invitation Salon, Specialty, FAQ, Inquiry, and More. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column displays a user profile for 'Jose Sato' from the 'Global Environment Centre Foundation'. It includes a placeholder for a profile picture, the company name, website URL (https://gec.jp/), department, country (JAPAN), and address. The right column contains a section titled 'Send "Matching Request" to this person here!' with instructions to fill in a message and press the 'Send "Matching Request"' button. A red circle highlights this entire right-hand section. Below the instructions is a text input field and a blue button labeled 'Send "Matching Request"'. At the bottom right, there is a section header 'MY MATCHING (PROGRESS)'.

JCM Global Match

A FREE matching platform for decarbonizing businesses!

Invitation Salon

Invitation Salon is a closed chat room where you can communicate with other users keeping confidentiality.

You can create your own Invitation Salon and invite other users you'd like to speak with, and have a discussion with them in a closed set-up.

You don't have to send a matching request. Just send your invitation.

An invitee can leave a chat room after receiving an invitation but it's not of his/her interest.
